Hi Alex,

I got the e-mail below from Darrell this morning, and I changed the address for his contact info, but I don't know where the database is that holds the web address. The page that he is referring to isn't one of the pages that I can edit in Mura. There's a second page that he mentions below, and I can't locate that one, either. I imagine that they are probably archived pages, but obviously people can still get to them.

I know we have talked about this ad infinitum. Do you remember what our policy is about these pages? Do we still make changes when people ask us to?

Thank you!

Rosemary

Rosemary,

On the key contact database at: <http://www.ipmcenters.org/intranet/directories/PSEPdirectory.cfm>

I noticed a few changes needed to be made:

Website: Pesticide Safety and Education Program (<http://psep.utk.edu>)
